

Final Touches on New Presbyterian Church

The roof is now being placed on the tower of the new Presbyterian church.

The tower is now at a height of about 110 feet above the sidewalk. Its four spires will rise and additional eighteen feet, making their tips the highest artificial points in Glendale.

Work upon the tower will consume about three weeks, according to Robert Bird, superintendent of construction for Architect Robert H. Orr. Four truck loads of artificial stone and about 3800 bricks still remain to be mortared into place.

Contractor William Keen of 1446 Thompson avenue has the plastering of the auditorium about two-thirds finished. The balance of the job will require about three weeks. Until it is done the interior wood-

SANTA FE WILL OPEN OFFICE AT GLENDALE

Due to the growing patronage of the Santa Fe among the residents of Glendale an office is to be opened by the passenger department at 119 East Broadway on November 10. The office formerly occupied by the Glendale & Montrose Street railway will be the location. J. N. Kopperl will be the agent in charge.

ORPHEUS CLUB CONCERT WAS GREAT SUCCESS

In spite of the competition of other affairs, the concert given by the Orpheus club of Los Angeles at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse under the auspices of the Glendale Commandery, Knights Templar, was a huge success. Every program number was greeted with enthusiastic and sincere applause and the entertainers were generous with encores.

For the Commandery however, the best part of the evening followed the program when the Orpheus Club members were entertained with a buffet luncheon and expressed their appreciation with an impromptu program of good fellowship songs. W. A. Barry, president of the club, made a little speech in which voiced the sentiments of his fellow members over their royal treatment. Commander R. V. Hogue responded, assuring the guests of the pleasure it was to the commandery to have the opportunity to entertain them, and it was a love feast all around.

Should Freight Rates Be Reduced at the Expense of Good Service?

Editorial in Chicago Tribune, August 25, 1923, entitled "Freight Rates and Commodity Prices"

The head of the Carnegie Institute at Pittsburgh told a gathering of farmers that if the manufacturers of machinery, clothing, house furnishings and other commodities would reduce prices 2 per cent this would reduce the farmer's expenses as much as a 25 per cent reduction in freight rates. So would a reduction of 1 per cent in interest on loans.

"The trouble with that proposition is that the freight rates may be reduced—possibly—by political pressure, commodities and interest not so readily. But that is a consideration the farmers will ponder very carefully, if they look to the future. They may be able to force a reduction in freight rates by using their influence upon the machinery of regulation, but if that reduces the efficiency of transportation the immediate advantage will be swallowed up sooner or later, probably sooner. Regulation, unless it is constructive, unless in the long run it builds up the railroads, is not in the farmers' interest. As his political leaders do not discuss that much, it is up to the farmer to look it up for himself. Just freight rates should be worked for, but a rate that is inadequate to the carrier is not just to the farmer, though he may think it is until he begins to pay the price of inadequate service."

A railway rate reduction sufficient to enable a shipper to make a substantial saving on a freight bill would, if made effective now, impair the earning power of every western railroad and threaten the solvency of some. All that a railway buys—labor, coal, forest products, steel articles, etc., still range at peak prices, and rates cannot safely be lowered until there is a reduction in these costs.

Eighty-eight cents of the railway dollar is required for wages, fuel, supplies, taxes and rentals. A 10 per cent rate reduction would wipe out all profit and injure the credit of lines which have nothing to save up for a rainy day.

The Government turned the railroads back to their owners in 1920 with an average operating deficit of $45,000,000 a month, which had been paid from the Federal treasury. Now, the railroads have no such recourse.

The increase in railroad freight rates is less than the increase in other prices. In January, 1923, the average freight rate of the western railroads was only 36 per cent higher than in 1913, while the average wholesale price of all farm products was 42 per cent higher and the average wholesale price of all commodities 56 per cent higher.

Fluctuations in prices for farm products cannot be laid at the door of the railroad, since between June, 1922, and June, 1923, under the same transportation conditions, wheat declined 10 cents a bushel in price and corn improved 19 cents.

The depressed condition of the farmer, and particularly the wheat grower, has been of great concern to the railways, as well as to the public, but happily all signs point to a material improvement. "The estimated income of the farms of America for 1923 is a billion dollars in excess of their income in 1922." (Advertisement, The Capper Farm Press, October 8, 1923.)

And the last annual report of the Interstate Commerce Commission says: "Manifestly, existing rates are no longer interfering with the free flow of commerce as a whole."

Give the railroads a chance. Don't lessen their usefulness by impairing their earning power. They are spending more than a billion dollars this year, not from earnings but of new money, to put their properties in condition to better serve the public and to prevent car shortages—this because they believe in the inherent fairness of the American people and their willingness to pay what good service is worth. Starved railroads, like starved horses, cannot do good work. It is axiomatic that compensatory rates with good service are far preferable to cheaper rates with poor service.

Constructive suggestions are always welcome.

Omaha, Nebraska,
November 1, 1923.

President.

STOCK AND BOND BROKER OPENS OFFICE HERE

An additional proof of the growing importance of Glendale as a commercial center is afforded by the action of H. M. Bennett, an experienced stock and bond broker, who has such faith in the future of the city that he is opening on Saturday a high class stock and bond house at 600 South Brand. He declares it will be the equal of any stock and bond house now being operated in any California city outside of San Francisco or Los Angeles; that he is in a position to execute, buy and sell orders on any exchange in the United States and can furnish quotations as quickly as any of the largest stock and bond houses in Los Angeles.

Mr. Bennett knows what he is talking about. He came to California twenty years ago from New York City and located in Los Angeles. He immediately established a stock and bond business and during the years 1905-6 was reputed to be the largest dealer in such paper in that city, selling principally unlisted securities. His office was then located in the Henry Huntington building, now known as the P. E. building. Since the date mentioned Mr. Bennett has devoted a great deal of his time to mortgage loan, banking and building loan business, his office recently having been in the Pacific Mutual building. There he conducted a large business which he sold out last May because of ill health. He is now returning to his former line. Having pioneered with such success in stocks and bonds in Los Angeles, he is confident he can perform a similar service in the business world of Glendale, to the advantage of its citizens and profit of himself.

-La Crescenta Notes-

Last night's meeting of the La Crescenta Improvement association from the standpoint of attendance, and many splendid talks and discussions, was the most interesting of the year. During the regular business meeting presided over by C. E. Culberson, president, Secretary Dr. G. Telfer read a letter from F. K. Czernicki, requesting the president to appoint someone to O. K. the light bills in this district as he is shortly leaving for his new home in Glendale. A rising vote of thanks was given Mr. Czernicki for services rendered as president of the association and for his efforts toward the general improvement in the valley. A tribute was also paid C. J. Young for his devotion to duty in fire fighting in this district. The question of the loss of 8½ dozen shovels at the recent fire in Verdugo Hills came up. Mr. Saunders, secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, being present, stated he would take the matter up with his organization.

The outstanding feature of the evening was the talks made by three representatives of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce—Saunders, Nelson and Heiser. Mr. Saunders' humorous talk was the hit of the evening, saying "they had read so much in the Glendale press about incorporation, annexation, etc., they thought it advisable to come up and listen in." Mr. Saunders also dwelt on the close relationship of Glendale and the La Crescenta valley, appreciating the assistance residents of this district gave them in the recent fire, also extending an invitation to all to attend the fire benefit next Tuesday. Mr. Nelson's talk covered the extension of the Glendale-Montrose railroad and improvement of Glendale avenue, and advised the La Crescenta people not to travel so rapidly that they would have to help pay for improvements. Mr. Heiser in the closing talk, spoke of the beauties of the valley, that many residents of Glendale had interests here and that we were really one large community.

There was a delightful gathering of the younger set at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Culberson on East Michigan avenue last Wednesday evening when their daughter, Miss Janet Culberson was hostess at a jolly Halloween dancing party. The home was artistically decorated in Halloween emblems and refreshments appropriate to the occasion were served during the evening. The young hostess was assisted by her mother. The guests were the Misses Lorene Czernicki, Heolise Le Clair of Los Angeles, Sara Conlin, Winona and Marjorie Neilson, Mary Belanger, Bessie Maxwell, Marion Keith, Marjorie Caldwell and Messrs. Robert and Donald Hendrix, Arthur Crowell, Francis and Carol Foy, Joseph Belanger, Phill Harrison, Greig Haskins, Ted Burke, Walt Young.

T. O. Potts was the first to numerate the advantages of incorporation and introduced J. L. Brown, president of the chamber of commerce of Montrose, who made a forceful talk advocating the incorporation of Montrose and La Crescenta into one town. He laid great stress on the point that it was for the people to decide if this was the opportune time to take such action. He personally thought it was. Mr. Brown assured the association his only object in his efforts in Montrose was for the benefit of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Persons entertained a group of local friends at bridge at their attractive home in Hollywood last Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Persons were residents of Montrose for a short while. Mr. Persons being president of the Montrose state bank. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Haskins, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Collins.

C. Sullivan of Montrose in his talk for incorporation, stated he was in hearty accord with Mr. Brown and Mr. Potts' views and stated the necessity of having building restrictions. Short talks were made by H. S. Bissell, M. S. Collins, Dr. E. N. Nettleton and G. Wellington, representing the La Crescenta Improvement association.

President Culberson in welcoming the large gathering, stated these meetings were held for the benefit of the community and hoped they would all take a personal interest in the meeting. Mr. Culberson also assured them gas would be connected with the local school within ten days.

Mrs. L. Tillinghast of East Prospect avenue is home after an extended trip through the east, during which she visited her old home in Boston and New York, making the return trip by boat to New Orleans. Miss Tillinghast was away three months.

The local Girl Scouts are very jubilant over their first attempt at an entertainment. Their Halloween masquerade party October 27 netted them $86.32.

President Culberson welcomed the representative of the chamber of commerce of Montrose, and the subject of incorporation.

POPULAR FELT HATS

Felt hats are increasingly popular and one of the shops is showing an interesting variation of the close fitting cloche. This is an English hat of fine felt that turns abruptly off the face and is caught with a fancy pin.

The first meeting of the Ladies' Guild of the new church, St. Luke's of the Mountains, was held at the La Crescenta hotel yesterday afternoon, with Miss Gertrude Drennen as hostess. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. M. B. Darrow, president. The guild will be very active in the building of the new church and plans were formulated during the afternoon for a tea and bazaar to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Thomas on December 6. Plans are under way for services and Sunday school to be held at the school auditorium. Sixteen members enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Drennen who was assisted by her sister, Mrs. C. Whitlock.

A motion was made by Dr. Nettleton—"Should the president appoint a committee from the La Crescenta Improvement association to co-operate with the chamber of commerce of Montrose to investigate the sentiment of the people of the whole district?" which was overwhelmingly defeated, only 3 votes being cast for appointment of said committee, showing by the vote the people of La Crescenta were unfavorable to incorporation.

A letter was read from George Dunlop, a resident of La Crescenta, former mayor of Hollywood, and considered one of the best posted men on civic affairs in Southern California. Mr. Dunlop is now assisting in drafting the new charter of Los Angeles. Mr. Dunlop's letter considers incorporating impracticable at this time and advocates against it.

Rev. Kelso, of the Community church, announced Dr. Freeman of Pasadena would dedicate their new church November 18, at 3 p. m. and extended a cordial invitation to all.

BACKGROUND IS AN ESSENTIAL OF HOME

It is the Something That Makes a House a Home

"The thought of comfort and attractiveness always has a large part in the home of our dreams. Always we conjure up pictures of it as a place of peace, where we can take rest and a substantial enjoyment in our leisure; never do we 'dream' of it as a place for hard and 'confining' work, although we are actually seeking to realize with all our hearts."

"I'll tell you what I think it is. It is Background."

"Background is the sum total of the things which we do to make our homes comfortable, attractive and pleasing. It is that indefinable something which makes a house a home. It is the tinting and coloring which our trials, our struggles, our hardships have given us to the place we call home. Perhaps, our first-born come to us in this room; mayhap, Junior broke his collar bone on this rope swing; or, indeed, we worked nights and mornings one whole summer to build this playhouse, or that garage or lattice fence. All are bits of coloring going to make up the Background we have created.

"And if happiness ever comes to us in this life, it comes to us in the homes when we are consciously or unconsciously creating this Background. It means more than just the frame we put around our lives; it means more than the lattice fence around the garden or the color of the paint on the house and garage. Yes, it means more than the mere expensiveness of the things with which we surround ourselves.

"It includes our kind of neighborliness, whether we welcome the neighbor's dog as cheerfully as we do the neighbor himself; whether we are cheerful and upright and dependable. It includes our fundamental outlook on life. In other words, it is our souls mirrored in the things we do every day, the things that can be seen, or heard, or felt--the things that develop or damn our destinies.

"The real tragedies of life come when something happens to destroy that Background. If we are tenants, every time we move to a new place, we destroy the bit of Background we have created. One of the finest things about owning our own homes is the chance to keep our Background and its associations. The greatest crime of the divorce court is that it destroys the Background which a man and a woman have spent a portion of their lives creating.

"Hang on to your Background, for it is the real frame around your lives, the lustre that makes your home really a sanctuary in your lives. Background is your treasure, worthwhile only to you. Keep it, if you seek happiness."

SEE THAT INFANT GETS ENOUGH EXERCISE

Exercise for the infant is as important as for big brother or sister. —Selected.

When the tiny baby is resting, place it on its stomach. There is really no danger of smothering and the pressing down movements of its arms are splendid exercise for those members and for the chest and spine. This is all the exercise your baby will need for the first few months, after which the observant mother can devise many little arm and leg movements that will tend to strengthen those muscles.

WHEN SHOULD THE MODERN GIRL MARRY?

Distinguished Women Discourage Early Wedlock

A current periodical gives a synopsis of the opinions of women who have distinguished themselves and had opportunities for wide observation as follows:

Ruth St. Denis, whom Los Angeles claims as her own: "A professional woman living the kind of life I do naturally has many other viewpoints and slants on the whole subject of marriage that the so-called 'normal woman' does not have. I imagine that about 25 years is the more or less accepted age for girls to marry."

Fannie Hurst says: "A girl should marry at that age which is bounded on the north by love, on the south by discretion, on the west by the teens, and on the east by the thirties."

Sophie Irene Loeb, sociologist and author, says that the greatest contributor to human unhappiness today is the early marriage. She declares: "The old idea that people should marry young has outgrown its usefulness. It was all very well in those early days before the advent of the telephone, the automobile, and the moving picture show. It was good enough in grandmother's day, when a woman's place was the home only. Then it was the alpha and omega of existence."

"But such is not the case today. This does not mean that home has lost its sacred place, or that it is not still the greatest factor in the life of the individual. But it does mean that there are other places and other issues besides home."

"It used to be that people married for a home and children and mainly to 'settle down.' Today there is no such thing as settling down. Life after marriage for young people is not much different than before marriage. They want to keep going. They must have recreations and entertainment along with their labors, and they are not content to sit by the fire and be satisfied."

"The majority of cases that come before the domestic relations court are due to these early marriages which fail to fulfill all that was expected, and what was expected in real truth was a good time."

"Young people should not be encouraged to marry early. After they have seen something of the human game as it is being played today, they are in a much better position to choose their life partner with whom they will go through understandingly to the end."

COMRADESHIP WITH YOUR CHILDREN

When it is possible, join in the games with your children. You will be surprised to find how much joy there is in them for you. Walk with them. Dance with them. Romp. Unpire their games. Teach them new games—games that you think will call into play all muscles of the body. You will be amply rewarded by happy, healthy babies that cannot help but be a perpetual source of delight to you.

You will also be happy to find the companionship that will result from your actual participation in their games and sports. And nothing should delight the parent more than to find itself the true comrade of the child.—Selected.

THE CHILD'S ROOM SHOULD FIT THE CHILD

"A child needs a restful place to sleep and play in just as a grown-up does. Therefore the foundation of every child's room should be based on neutral colors," says Edna Brintnell in "Home Owner."

"Warm greys, rich cream or ivory tints serve best as backgrounds that will encourage the youthful occupant to play happily and sleep peacefully.

"The floor coverings should preferably be neutral in tone and plain—extending almost to the edge of the room, as small rugs or polished floors are pitfalls for tiny tottering feet. Some of the best floor rugs in grey, blue and grey or rose and grey mixtures are both practical and beautiful as their colorings are exquisitely soft and there is no nap to catch the dust nor fuzz up if water or milk is accidentally spilled upon them."

"A fireplace is a cheery spot, but necessitates careful watching and hence is apt to be a source of worry rather than a joy. Likewise, all heaters should be carefully protected."

"Furniture of painted wood or wood is best in this room where fingers are apt to be sticky, and if made in smaller sizes is best fitted to the growing child. Large chairs make little legs ache for lack of support and little backs tired from sitting too straight, and what child doesn't adore a tiny rocker?"

"A long enameled box with hinged top or a long-side drawer is splendid for holding the numerous toys that are used and laid aside daily, and if one can build window boxes these can also be used to tuck away naughty bears or rebellious Peter Rabbits."

"Furniture should be spare, that is, essentials."

Mrs. Cyril Turner, who was formerly a French artist, has taken up sky writing and will begin hovering over southern and western cities in the near future.

By FRANCIS W. READ

Stanford University is attempting to stage a comeback in football. After their defeat at the hands of the Southern California Trojans last Saturday the Cards are hard at work preparing for the California game. Like the Trojans their battle cry is "beat Cal."

In their attempted comeback the Cardinals are showing the same spirit that characterized the U. S. C. rally after the defeat at the hands of Washington. When the Trojans players arrived after their fall to the Huskies they were met by crowds of rooters who shouted the slogan "Oo to Stanford!" So the Stanford spirit rallies after defeat at the hands of the Trojans and prepares to defeat the Golden Bear. If the spirit in which they are going at it counts for anything the Cardinals should win the battle. Our correspondent at Stanford, Harry Bennett, writes that after the defeat of their team at the hands of Henderson's eleven the Palo Alto campus was "downhearted as the deuce." Then he adds, "still, we'll beat Cal."

That the Cardinals have a real football team, in spite of their 14 to 7 defeat at the hands of Stanford Saturday is the belief of numerous northern scribes. In a dispatch printed on this page today, Bennett analyzes the Stanford team and tells why it is still to be considered in the running for the coast honors. He believes that the Cards should down the Olympic Club tomorrow, and hand a licking to California on November 24.

Stanford is with Cal on November 10

There is one thing certain about the college situation on the Pacific coast at the present time, and that is that in spite of the deep-seated and ancient rivalry that exists between Stanford and California, and all the desires of the Cardinals to tame the Bears when the two tangle, the Stanford student body is strongly behind California to beat the Trojans one week from tomorrow. More than that, hundreds of Stanford students will come to Los Angeles to cheer for the Golden Bear. In the Stanford-U. S. C. squabble last week several thousand California students were at Palo Alto rooting for the Cardinals. It seems that whatever rivalry there has previously existed between Stanford and California, the two institutions are united against the Trojans. The Cards couldn't tame them, so they will be on hand and root for the Bears to turn the trick.

Just what is responsible for the brotherly feeling between Stanford and California it is impossible to say. Of course there is the mutual ill feeling toward U. S. C., but there is something more in it than that.

GLENDALE MIDGETS

DEFEAT MONROVIA

BY 42 TO 7 SCORE

Lightweights Hand the Wildcat Cubs a Good Licking

By FAIRFIELD WILSON

Glendale's Midget footballers defeated Monrovia yesterday by a score of 42 to 7. The game was as uninteresting as the score would indicate. The Glendale boys started in the first quarter with two rapid touchdowns, after which the extra point was scored. In the second quarter there was little, if any, sensational playing, excepting when Lovell broke away from the pack for a gain of 20 yards. Lovell also made a brilliant run on a forward pass in the third quarter.

During the third Glendale substituted a new team. It was before these boys had gotten well warmed up that Monrovia managed to squelch the play over. The new men, however, redeemed themselves soon by scoring two touchdowns in that quarter and two in the next.

The home town boys did not show up very well in forward passing as the two caught by Lovell and La Franchi were the only successful attempts throughout the game. Monrovia, however, did some very pretty passing toward the latter part of the game. By this victory the team increased its already recognized opportunity for winning the championship of its class. All that is necessary now is the defeat of Alhambra to place Glendale on the top line.

The Glendale rooting section was a pleasant surprise to the team. It was as large as that of Monrovia and outvalued it three to one in pep and cheers. However, when the outcome of the game was no longer in doubt, both sides kept up the spirit of rivalry.

Tomorrow the big brothers of this team meet Monrovia on the home grounds. An exceedingly large attendance is expected, because of the numerous successes of Glendale so far this season.

The lineups of yesterday's game:

GLENDALE	MONROVIA
Jonkey	L.E.
Worley	L.T.
Green	L.G.
Muff	R.C.
Helderman	R.C.
Read	R.T.
Thompson	R.E.
LaFranchi	R.E.
Porter	L.H.
McAllister	R.H.
Lovell	F.

Substitutes: Glendale—Sturges for Jonkey, Niel for Muff, Krug for Helderman, LaFranchi for Read, Thompson, Eckles for Lovell, Schuler for Porter, Roberts for McAllister, Warrick for La Franchi, Monrovia: Fox for Orde, Budwirth for Blais, Becker for Smith, Argue for Blais.

STANFORD TRYING TO STAGE BIG COMEBACK

Cards Meet Olympic Club Tomorrow, Bears Play Nevada

By HARRY M. BENNETT, Jr.
Press Sport Correspondent
(Exclusive Dispatch)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 2.—Stanford beat itself last week and handed the honor of victory to the Trojans, but that doesn't mean that the Cards are out of the running for the rest of the year. The men went back on the field Tuesday after two days of rest, thoroughly disgusted, but not at all discouraged, and are now determined to prove to the doubting ones that all is not lost and that they can come back.

Tomorrow, the Olympic club aggregation is coming down to try its luck on the Card field. Recently the club men held the Berkeley squad to a score of 16-0, but this week they intend to leave another defeat chalked up on the Stanford slate. The Winged O backers are not in the least hesitant in covering all the Stanford money they can find, feeling confident that their team will be on the heavy side of the score when the final whistle blows.

Before the Redskins meet Cal, both Oregon and Idaho will go through the Stanford mill. All attention is now centered on the "big game." This week, Cal will stage its show, taming the Silver Foxes of Nevada. The contest is not expected to furnish many thrills. The biggest part of the doubt comes in how high they will be able to run the score in four quarters. Andy Smith will undoubtedly run in his second string after the first gets warmed up and save his precious Bears for the Trojan duel the following week. The victorious Bear sent up a sigh of relief the other day when he heard Gordon Campbell had broken three ribs and would therefore be unable to participate November 10.

This Saturday seems to be rather dull for the followers of the Big

DYNAMITERS IN GAME WITH THE MONROVIA SQUAD

Confident of a victory over the Monrovia Wildcats, the Glendale High school footballers lined up on the local field this afternoon before a crowd that taxed the seating capacity to its limit. Rooting sections from both schools, and a large crowd of spectators were present. To date the Monrovia team has not won a game, nor have the locals dropped a contest. By their heavy victories over all teams they have met, the Dynamiters had the decided edge at the outset. Coach Hayhurst expressed confidence that his men could turn the trick. On the other hand, anything can happen, and a cellar team has been known to take a seeming championship aggregation down the line. The Glendale eleven lined up as follows: Horil, right end; Phillips, right tackle; Hench, right guard; Zann, center; Morrison, left guard; Dotson, left tackle; Lavelle, left guard; Red Elliot, quarter; Ryan, right half; West, left half; H. Elliot, fullback.

Three, but November 10 looms ahead as an interesting day for everyone concerned, and a goodly portion from all three campuses will be in Los Angeles at that promising time.

A general shake up in the backfield is expected to bring out the strongest combination yet attempted. Captain Campbell has shown all season that he is "there" when it comes to broken field running and at half he should be a top-notch. He has been shifted to that position while McDermott is now calling signals. Dick Lawson, the real man for that job has been out for some time with his leg in a cast, but is now hopping around, feverishly waiting for the time to come when he can get into a suit and assume his position, which should be soon. With such a combination as Nevers at full, Dick at quarter and a great supply of halves to draw from such as Campbell, Cleveland, Dennis, Williamson, Woodward and Cuddeback, the team's determined hopes of a come back seem plausible if not more than likely.

Don't blame the cat. No doubt a canary bird looks as good to him as a watermelon does to a country boy.

GLENDALE'S BIG LEAGUERS BATTLE ANGELS TOMORROW

Washington Park, Los Angeles to Be the Scene of Tilt

Loyal boosters of Bob and Irish Meusel, Arnold Stats, Micky O'Brien, Hollis Thurston, Mike Donlin, Carl Sawyer, Babe Herman, Henle Sand and Lefty Thomas will get the chance of seeing these favorite sons do their "stunt" tomorrow afternoon when the Glendale Major Leaguers battle the Los Angeles ball nine at Washington Park. Hollis Thurston, who not many years ago was doing his pastime on the local sandlots, and who during the past season proved his ability as a hurler by throwing commendable ball for the Chicago White Sox, will be in the box against the Angels. A large number of folks will no doubt turn out to see the vast improvement of Thurston over the days he twirled in the coast circuit.

In the outfield will be the big three, Irish Meusel, Arnold Stats, and Bob Meusel. Were this trio drawing their pay checks on the same big league outfit they would undoubtedly be tagged one of the greatest outfield combinations of all time. A big turnout of fans who closely followed the progress of Bob when he was a member of the Vernon Tigers, and of Stats, and Irish Meusel when they performed with the Angels in the coast loop will in all probability be in the stands tomorrow to watch these great ballgamers "put it on."

On first base for the Glendale crowd will be one of the most colorful ball tossers that ever were big league players. By that we mean Mike Donlin who not only was one of the games greatest, but who can still stand up to the home plate and sock the old spate. Micky O'Brien, and Babe Herman of the Boston Red Sox are the other major leaguers to wear Glendale uniforms.

OCCIDENTAL TO MEET WHITTIER POETS TOMORROW

Occidental will go down to Whittier tomorrow to battle the Quaker football team for the title to first place in the Southern California Conference standings. By all odds the Tigers should annex the battle, but Whittier wins on breaks so frequently that it is difficult to say what will happen. The Tigers are the much better team of the two as far as football is concerned, but then so were the Southern Branch Cubs when the two met last Saturday, and yet Whittier annexed the contest by two points, making but three first downs during the entire game. The Poets win on the breaks every time.

With Ebers and the rest of the cripples back in the line-up, Occidental is all set for a victory. A mob of Orange and Black rooters will go down to the Quaker city to take in the game. If Whittier should win and remain on the top of the heap, it will be the biggest upset to the hope that has happened in the Southern Conference in many years.

FROSH TEAMS IN ACTION TOMORROW

Three Southern California Intercollegiate Conference frosh football teams will display their wares to the public Saturday afternoon as preliminary games to main varsity tilts. The Pomona and Southern Branch yearlings will tangle at Moore Field, the game being carded for 1:15 o'clock. At Pasadena the Caltech peagreeners will play a curtain-raiser to the main Caltech-Redlands contest. The Pomona frosh swamped the Pasadena babes two weeks ago, 40 to 0. With the Bear Cublets showing great strength in their early season games, it is expected that the clash with the Sagechicks will rival the varsity contest to follow.

CALTECH, OXY ARMISTICE DAY

The Pasadena post of the American Legion is sponsoring the big Armistice day football game between California Tech and Occidental, which is scheduled to be played at the Crown City stadium a week from Monday. The game is not to be at the Coliseum.

CUBS WILL TAKE ON SAGEHENS TOMORROW

Branchers Meet Pomona at Moore Field; Cubs Favored

Coach Jimmie Cline's "Fighting Cubs" are scheduled to mix with the Pomona college Sagehens in their second conference tilt on Moore field tomorrow afternoon. This promises to be one of the stiffest games of the conference season, since both teams are suffering the sting of defeat and are determined to force their way back to the upper division in team standings.

From a perusal of the dope sheet it appears that the Cubs have the edge on the Blue and White aggregation. The Sagehens dropped their first contest to the Cal Tech squad by a 13-6 count, and the Engineers already suffered defeat from the Poets the previous week to the tune of 8 to 0. With the Whittier team winning over the Cubs by only two points, the Branch team is left decidedly at the head of the column as far as the dope is concerned.

But the Sagehens are a team that is not to be considered weak by any means. While they lost most of the men that made up their championship squad of last year, they have developed an exceedingly powerful backfield this season. Their line is not as strong and has become Coach Nixon's chief cause for worry. The games in which they have engaged have all been conspicuous by the large number of fumbles made, and against the Cubs this may prove disastrous. Outside of this one weakness, however, the Pomonans are a well balanced organization, as was evidenced by their 27-6 win over Redlands last Saturday.

After their wonderful showing against the lucky Whittier team on Saturday, the Cubs are to be reckoned with by every conference squad. Those who witnessed the game testify that the Cub line is

CALTECH ELEVEN TO TANGLE WITH REDLANDS SQUAD

Caltech is expected to take the Redlands Bulldogs down the line by a substantial score when the two teams meet at Tournament park, Pasadena, tomorrow afternoon. The Engineers show promise of making a fairly good football team, while the Baptists appear to be a hopeless case as far as the gridiron game is concerned.

Coach Fox Stanton has been giving his men some pretty hard workouts since they took Pomona into camp, and it is expected that they will be in thorough condition to repeat the trick tomorrow. They can meet almost any emergency that may arise, and are equally good on the offensive and defensive. If they have learned by this time how to avoid fumbling, they will be a real football team.

"Holly" Moyse, captain of the Tech eleven, is expected to do some good work during the game. Moyse is a graduate of Glendale High school, where he played on the football team for four years. Great is also expected to do stellar work for the Engineers.

Redlands is practically an unknown quantity. The Bulldogs have played but one conference game, dropping to Occidental by a 35 to 0 count. The Redlands eleven is composed mostly of new men, and is coached by a new mentor this year.

superior to any other in the south, and the way the backfield went through the clash leaves nothing to be desired except a little more favor with Dame Fortune. The men who were handicapped with injuries are rapidly recovering from them, and it looks as though the regular lineup will enter the Pomona tangle. George Bishop, who performed his duties at end in Saturday's game in spite of a painful infection in his right arm, is much improved; Captain Walt Westcott expects to be back in the game; Tillie Parisi, whose fighting spirit was one of the features of the Whittier frosh, claims that he will be in tip-top shape by Saturday; Loran Pear, star fullback, who suffered from a seriously bruised shoulder all during the Poet tilt, will be in shape after a little rest; and Den Person, who had his already injured leg wrenched again, will be back ready to take his place.

RUSSELL-PIERCE FURNITURE CO. IS BUYERS' MECCA

The Russell-Pierce Furniture Company, located at 1529-31 San Fernando road, Glendale, is taking space today in this paper to inform those who are contemplating purchasing furniture, that it has now completed the fine of house furnishings and is now offering special bargains for the month of November. It is not advertising a sale but simply quoting regular prices on high-grade merchandise, which surely means a saving to Glendale buyers.

By fair dealing, splendid service and conscientious pricing of its goods this concern has grown by leaps and bounds until it has become necessary to triple the working force within the last four months. There has recently been added to the selling force two capable salesmen, Mr. J. R. Fackenstein of New York and Mr. D. W. Hubbard of Fargo, North Dakota. These two gentlemen have had a wide experience in the furniture business and their courtesy and energy are showing results to the benefit of this deserving concern.

A new delivery truck has also been added to the equipment of this popular furniture company, which means another step in the direction of better service to patrons.

In the advertisement today stress is laid on the fact that this concern is not having a "special sale" to clean out shop-worn or odd pieces of merchandise, but every item listed is from the new, clean and up to the minute stock. It is well worth the time to visit this busy store and see the splendid showing of modern furniture. One complete floor filled with dining room equipment and living room sets is a treat to the eye of the housewife and the prices attached are such as thrill rather than discourage the hopeful buyer. One solid floor of bedroom furniture of the most modern designs meaning comfort and satisfaction, is another department that has not been slighted in the most minute detail. Prices here are also most gratifying to the visitors and many are the happy homes that are now enjoying real comfort at economical cost, made possible by this worthy concern.

FUR BANDINGS SOLD BY THE YARD

All of the new wraps are lavishly trimmed with fur this season and the fur is being featured in fur bandings by the yard. Mole skin, beaver and chinchilla are among the many furs displayed. These bandings come as wide as eight inches and are of excellent quality.

What a COMFY HOUSE you live in!

"Comfy" and warm because of Pearl Oil! So easy and economical to keep even room-warmth all day with one match and a turn of the wick. No fuss or muss—no coal or ashes to lug. All day long a clear, bright flame that burns the oil completely, leaving the air sweet and clean.

To insure best results, use only Pearl Oil—the clean-burning, uniform kerosene—refined and re-refined by the Standard Oil Company's special process. "Coal oil" or "kerosene" may mean any kind of kerosene—say "PEARL OIL"—copyrighted for your protection.

They were accompanied by Richardson D. White and David Black, superintendent and business agent for the grammar school system. The Pacific and Doran schools were visited in company of Architect Alfred F. Priest of 1422 North Central avenue and the Broadway school was visited with Architect Arthur G. Lindley of 123 South Belmont street. Minor changes were recommended in all three buildings.

TUESDAY CLUB ON RECORD FAVORING THE SEWER BONDS

The Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club, represented by Mrs. Helen E. MacMullin, chairman of the civic committee of that organization went on record before the Glendale city council last night as being heartily in favor of voting a sufficient amount of proposed sewer bonds. Mrs. MacMullin also asked that the city take steps to relieve the dangerous feature at the corner of Randolph and Central.

The following communication was read by Mrs. MacMullin: "Mrs. Daniel Campbell, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club requests me to make the following statement:—Any steps that the council may take to further the sewerage question of Glendale have the hearty endorsement of the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club."

"As chairman of the civic committee of the club," continues Mrs. MacMullin, "I have been notified to take up with the proper authorities and have rectified the condition existing at the northeast corner of Randolph and Central, considered a dangerous corner for school children, who have to cross there three or four times daily. The danger is caused by the growth of many trees on both the north and south side of Randolph, completely obstructing all view of any vehicle approaching in either direction."

Mrs. MacMullin was notified that the corner in question is in the county and not in the city of Glendale, and that therefore this city has no jurisdiction over it. City Manager Reeves agreed to write to the Los Angeles board of supervisors and see if the existing condition cannot be remedied.

COUNCIL GETS AWAY WITH BIG LOT OF BUSINESS

Many Ordinances and Petitions Acted on; Bids Considered

The hearing of protests against the widening of Central avenue was continued last night by the Glendale city council for two weeks. A number of residents of Central were present at the meeting and several times, as the newcomers arrived, they were informed by Mayor Robinson that the hearing had been laid over.

A petition was received asking that sidewalks be laid on the west side of Central between Windsor and Maple. Action was deferred for three weeks.

The city engineer reported that the petition for the improvement of Justin between Fourth and Glenwood with 3-inch macadam, contained 68.8 percent of the property affected and the proceedings for the work on this street was ordered started.

A letter was received from the Glendale community players asking for the moral support of the council, and all the members of the council signified their intention of attending the coming performance of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," that will be put on November 2 and 3 by this organization, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse.

A 60-day extension was granted to W. J. Curren in the improvement of Alameda and Milford streets.

A similar extension was granted to Peter Perry in the improvement of Magnolia and Cypress.

An application of John J. Westrup to maintain a rest home at 927 North Louise was denied.

P. Dietrich, manager of the public service department, reported that the reservoir on East Windsor is being used at this time to supply water to a large section of Glendale and that it can hardly be done away with now. This report resulted from a complaint on the part of the neighbors in that vicinity to the effect that the reservoir is a nuisance. It was decided to clean the land around the reservoir and possibly convert it into a park.

The contract for the delivering of a carload of poles to the city of Glendale was awarded to the Illinois Electric company.

The hearing on the setting aside of Palmer near Adams as a commercial district was set for two weeks from last night.

A similar hearing on establishing a commercial district at Sierra and Sycamore Canyon road, was set for the same time, as was the hearing on establishing a commercial district on Glendale avenue and Monterey road.

Bids for the following streets were opened, read and referred to the city engineer for checking and report: Railroad street, Alameda avenue, Stanley avenue, and Concord street.

The following ordinance and resolutions were adopted:

An ordinance extending the time for the opening and widening of Doran street.

A resolution adopting plans and plats in the office of the city engineer.

A resolution of intention for the improvement of Watson court.

A resolution of intention for the improvement of Brand boulevard, sidewalk only.

The following ordinances were offered:

An ordinance of intention for the opening and widening of Windsor and Garfield.

An ordinance establishing the grade on Windsor, Garfield and Los Angeles streets.

An ordinance placing a lot, just south of the Pacific avenue school, in the commercial district.

H. L. Leavitt, who operated the merchants' exhibit in Glendale last year, appeared before the council and asked for a permit to conduct a road show in Glendale next week. The matter was referred to the chief of police with power to act.

Map of Tract No. 7444, which is outside the city, was adopted.

Mrs. Keller of the Sunshine home for aged ladies, appeared before the board and asked that the decision of the council, forbidding her conducting the home in Glendale, be reconsidered. Councilmen Kimlin and Horn, signified their intention of going to the home and looking further into the proposition.

The city attorney was instructed to draft an amendment to the building ordinance, which will allow sheds with wood frames and sheet iron sides and roof be constructed in the fire districts of this city.

Councilman Horn was authorized to appear before the County Planning commission in connection with the laying out of the property at the north end of Brand boulevard. It is claimed that this property, which is in the county, is not being laid out to conform with the land on either side.

The proposition of having the west ends of Colorado street and Broadway meet so as to come together at the east end of the bridge that will be constructed across the river at Colorado street was brought up by Councilman Horn, and the city manager was instructed to confer with the Los Angeles planning commission in connection with this matter.

A communication from the West Colorado Improvement, with reference to the building of the subway under the Southern Pacific tracks at that thoroughfare, was referred to the city engineer, who, it is understood, will work with the Los Angeles authorities in connection with this matter.

PI KAPPA DELTAS TO INSTITUTE CHAPTER HERE

Two Glendalians Will Be Charter Members of New Group

Pi Kappa Delta, a national debating fraternity, will institute the Epsilon chapter, University of California, Southern Branch, at the Egyptian Village cafe, 133 North Brand, this evening. The installation and initiation will start at 5:30, to be followed by a banquet. Ten charter members for the new chapter will be initiated.

Included in the charter members of the new chapter are two Glendalians, Francis W. Read and Paul R. Hutchinson. Both are graduates of the Glendale high school, where they were members of the debating team, and both were winners of the annual oratorical contest in their senior year. At the university, where Read is a junior and Hutchinson a sophomore, both are members of the varsity debate squad.

Professor Charles E. Marsh, debating coach of the Southern Branch, and National president of Pi Kappa Delta, will conduct the installation. He is the third national president of the fraternity, which was organized in 1913. The first and second presidents, E. R. Nichols of Redlands and J. R. MacArthur of Redlands, will also be on the program. Dr. Ernest C. Moore, director of the Southern Branch, will make the address of welcome to the newest organization on the Southern campus. Miss Myres of Occidental and Mr. Scott of Pomona will speak after the banquet. Franklin H. Minck, chairman of the Forensics board of the university, will be toastmaster.

The charter members of the new chapter of Pi Kappa Delta who will be initiated tonight are Henry Murphy, Franklin H. Minck, William Burger, Fred Houser, Paul R. Hutchinson, Francis W. Read, William H. George, assistant debating coach; Elizabeth Orsey, Dorothy Freeland and Helen Jackson. Only varsity debaters and orators are eligible to election in Pi Kappa Delta.

THURSDAY CLUB LEARNS HOW TO MAKE ETCHINGS

Broader knowledge of the intricate art of making etchings and a greater appreciation of the finished work was gained by the members of the Thursday Afternoon club of Glendale who listened to a very instructive talk on "Etchings" given at the regular meeting of the organization on Thursday at 1233 South Brand boulevard by Mrs. John Cotton. Her talk was preceded by a short business session, in charge of Mrs. E. V. Bacon, president. After the reading of the minutes by Miss Eva Daniels, secretary, it was announced that on November 15 the club would meet at the K. P. hall, corner of Park avenue and South Brand boulevard, to organize for an arts and crafts class and outline the work they desired to take up.

A very beautiful collection of etchings in black and white, brown and white aquatints were on display and the process by which they were made was explained by Mrs. Cotton. As outlined by her, the design is usually made first either in water colors or pencil. It is then copied on to a copper plate which has first been covered with a sort of black, wax-like substance. The design is made with an etching needle through the wax and the plate is then immersed in an acid bath. The longer it is left in the acid the deeper are the lines. After the plate is taken from the bath and the wax removed the print is made. The plate has ink worked into it and then rubbed off. It is then put in a press, covered with a damp paper and blankets and then rolled with a heavy roller.

The works of Rembrandt, Whistler and some of the other noted etchers was commented on by Mrs. Cotton, who also told of the steel engravings, wood block prints, lithograph work, etc. The pictures displayed of work done by Mr. Cotton included some that he had done in England, France, Canada and other parts of the world.

At the close of Mrs. Cotton's talk, refreshments of punch and wafers were served.

Mrs. E. J. Morgan announced that there would be a meeting of the Glendale auxiliary of the Children's Hospital society, which is being sponsored by the Thursday Afternoon club, at her home on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The best way to store your potatoes is to spread them in shallow bins rather than in deep pits. If the bottom of the cellar is concrete, elevate the floor of the bins six inches, or if that is not readily done, cover the floor with sand. Remember that potatoes must be kept out of the bright sunlight, for otherwise they will turn green and become unfit for the table. It is a good plan to sprinkle a little lime and sulphur, or even lime alone, over the potatoes in the bins. But if the vines were killed by blight you will do well to eat the potatoes as rapidly as possible, for they are not likely to keep very long in any event.

MODERN CAFE IS THE 'CHATEAU DE QUALITE'

Edwards & Dennis Have Grand Opening Tomorrow

The formal opening of the Edwards & Dennis "Chateau de Qualite," one of the most modern cafe and confectionery establishments in Southern California, 108 East Broadway, will be held Saturday evening between the hours of 5 and 11 o'clock.

Elaborate preparations are being made for this affair. A wonderful menu has been prepared and during the entire evening musical selections will be rendered by a popular orchestra. Already a large number of reservations have been made for this opening event, which promises to be one of the most popular opening features ever held in Glendale.

This cafe is a "dream" refreshment palace. All of the exposed woodwork is of birch. Booths line the walls, with tables occupying down the center of the room. Everything in connection with this cafe is what might be termed "exquisite and delightfully quiet." Instead of featuring the "jazz," such as many other establishments have done, the proprietors of this place have endeavored to provide something extremely rich in tone, delightful in appearance and restful in atmosphere. This result has been accomplished to an unusual degree.

The meals served at this cafe will be above the ordinary, according to the management. The most efficient cooks procurable have been retained and experienced employees have been engaged. "Courtesy and good food" is the keynote of this place.

That high class food is served at this cafe can be vouched for by a representative of the Glendale Press, who was among a select party entertained by Messrs. Edwards and Dennis, Thursday night. The course dinner included delicious chicken that was fried "to a turn," and everything that naturally goes with it—even to the cigars. It was a wonderful repast, all of which goes to show that these boys "really know how."

COLORADO FOLK WANT STREET WIDENED

Improvement Association Favors Same for the Entire Length

An effort is being made by the Colorado Boulevard Improvement association to have that thoroughfare widened all the way from the proposed Riverside drive on the west side of the Los Angeles river, to the Colorado street bridge over the Arroyo Seco near Pasadena. A communication, drawing the attention of the city council to the feature that is holding up this matter was received by that body from the Colorado street organization. As a result City Manager William H. Reeves was instructed to take the matter up with the planning commission of Los Angeles immediately.

The following communication, which is self-explanatory, was received by the council: "The Colorado Boulevard Improvement association, through its committee appointed for that purpose, desires to call the attention of your honorable body to the following condition in connection with the widening of said street:

"That Colorado boulevard from the eastern limits of Glendale through Eagle Rock to its junction with the street car line, has not been ordered widened.

"That we understand your action in widening the said street contemplated similar action by the city of Los Angeles covering its portion. Under present status, a narrow portion will remain and in a measure nullify our efforts for a thorough widening of the street and on the city limits on the east end across the proposed Colorado street bridge over the Los Angeles river.

"We, therefore, respectfully request that such action be taken as will remedy the condition, it appearing that a request from the city of Glendale to the city of Los Angeles would serve to do this.

"It is very possible that such action has already been taken and if so would like very much to be advised of the fact and would thank you for any suggestions if the association could be of any assistance in the matter."

The letter was signed by A. W. Hewitt, 1325 East Colorado, and H. A. Reynolds, 1319 East Colorado, committee from the Colorado Boulevard Improvement association.

REGULAR MEETING OF ODD FELLOWS LAST NIGHT

Regular meet of the Odd Fellows' lodge was held Thursday night at the I. O. O. F. hall with Noble Grand Hall presiding. The third degree was put on a class consisting of Mr. Peterson and the Simpson brothers by the Glendale degree team. A number of visitors from other lodges were present.

MILTON SILLS AND HIS FIRST LESSON IN MAKING UP

It was in 1912 when Milton Silles decided he would leave law school where he had but three months to finish his course, and honor the speaking stage with his presence.

What Silles did not know about acting would fill many a good sized volume, but with a fairly good supply of nerve, he told the manager of the "Squaw Man," which was playing an extended engagement in Chicago, that he was a John Drew, a William Faversham, a Forbes Robertson, and a William H. Crane all rolled into one. The manager believed him and gave him the leading role in the show.

Silles, who enacted the role of Roy Glennister in Rex Beach's novel, "The Spoilers," the attraction now at the Gateway theater, at the Goldwyn studios, laughs about the incident. "I was so dumbfounded when he engaged me that I did not know how to make up. I would have been in an awful fix if all the actors had not made up in one room where I purposely, kept just one move behind them while they were putting on their grease paint, and that way got a fairly good coating of paint."

MAE MURRAY IS APOSTLE OF MUCH LAUGHING

"I think," declared Mae Murray, noted star whose picture, "The French Doll," is now playing at the Glendale Theater, "I think we owe it to ourselves not to let a day pass without getting slightly intoxicated."

"I don't mean on alcohol," she added. "There is nothing I detest more than seeing a person suffering from alcoholic intoxication. I think 'suffering' is the right word, because nothing appears more dismal to me than to see a person lose control of his proper senses. "What I mean by intoxication is a liberation of the senses from the ordinary constraints. I mean a tingling sensation of the joyousness of life. I mean the sort of feeling that makes you want to laugh and sing—and especially "It's the sort of feeling you get when you look at something beautiful. When you drive at top speed in your automobile or when you feel the cold rain in your face on a windy day. It makes you thrill all over with a quickened sensation of life."

"That's intoxication with life." There's a wonderful feeling at the Glendale tonight. See ad.

SELLON PLAYS ENTIRE ROLE IN A WHEEL CHAIR

Charles A. Sellon, who with Holbrook Blinn was a member of the original cast of "The Bad Man," which is now being shown as a photoplay at the T. D. & L. Theater, has one of the longest, yet the easiest part in the production, "The Bad Man" was produced by Edwin Carewe for First National. Sellon, throughout the entire picture, portrays his role in a wheel chair. He plays the part of

THE ORACLE

"Mebbe she will," said Old Hi Green, With the end of a long dry straw between His teeth, and a brow that was furrowed deep With thought—and Hi Green thought a heap— "Mebbe she will," Old Hi Green said As he looked at the clouds up overhead, With a hint of the rain we asked him of— "Mebbe she will"—as he looked above— "An' mebbe she won't."

"Mebbe she be," Hi Green would say When the wheat waved gold on a summer day And we talked of the bumper crop it was— "Mebbe she be"—Hi Green would pause And chew on the end of the long dry straw With a wise, wise look that a sage might awe, And brows with deep thought furrowed and knit— "Mebbe she be—but she ain't threshed yet— "An' mebbe she ain't."

"Mebbe I will," admitted Hi When they told him to put a field in rye Or wheat or corn, as the case might be, While the dry straw moved reflectively. "Mebbe I will"—and the old plow's track Was moist and loamy and rich and black, While the wrinkles that furrowed his sweat-brow Were deep—almost—as the track of the plow— "An' mebbe I won't."

Nationwide Ownership

NATIONWIDE in the scope of its service, the Bell System is nationwide also in the distribution of its securities.

In street car, at church, at theatre, at grocery store counter you rub elbows with its owners.

They differ as widely in occupation and in wealth as do the more than 14,000,000 subscribers served by the system. But as Bell subscribers are united by a common means of inter-communication, so Bell owners are united by a common characteristic—thrift.

Other forms of thrift have very properly attracted the savings of thousands of Americans, but none of them more truly illustrates an investment democracy and none more directly serves the public.

Two hundred and seventy thousand people have made common property of their savings in order to maintain this great national public utility.

Their dollars serve them and serve the nation.
